

Christmas Dinner

Mary Tomaine

Tue,
Nov 7,
7:40 PM

to me

Dear George,

Today, I met with Pierre and settled on the price and menu for the Christmas Dinner. I have attached an updated version of what you sent out last year. If you are okay with it, it is ready to send out.

We had a very nice visit to Vancouver. Oscar was on his best behavior as he continued to practice of his recital. Susan and Robin were very gracious and accommodating.

Problem occurred when I came down with a horrible virus and spent 5 days in bed and upon returning spent another 4 days in bed. Went to our doc as soon as I could for antibiotics. I am well on the mend and ready to get to work.

Yesterday, I purchased all new ornaments for the CHS tree. The last couple of years it looked pretty sad, so I really jazzed it up. I spent about $75---hope that is not too much.

Please let me know if you need anything else.

Ulla

CHS Christmas Party
2023.xlsx.docx

S. Robert Powell <srp18407@gmail.com>

Tue, Nov 7,
8:03 PM (12
hours ago)

to Mary

November 7

Ulla My Dear:

Very nice. Thank you for getting this set up with Pierre and Co.

I'll send it out to the membership, and others, tomorrow.

I have here several table decorations and Christmas "favor" options for all dinner guests that have been created by Julie Esty. At the appropriate time, these items will have to be evaluated by "the committee" and selections made for use at the restaurant.

The arrangements for the Crystal Band concert on December 3 at 7 PM at Trinity Episcopal Church have all been made. When I see you next, I will tell you about a sequence of events that almost resulted in this concert being cancelled because of the boorish and offensive behavior of a couple of know-it-all Carbondaleans.

I'm trying very hard not to be overwhelmed by the Christmas season, and so far, so good.

Rex

Mary Tomaine

Tue,
Nov 7,
8:27 PM

to me

Hang in there Rex! I will pop in soon but of course check with you first.

I just don't get it----Julie Esty refused to help with the Fashion Show but provides table decorations and prizes to our dinner?

I will continue to be baffled by human behavior! Boorish behavior is much too common in our world, Rex!

Speaking of boorish behavior, are you going to the election night festivities? just couldn't do it---staying home and reading a tacky novel.

Will see you soon----
